The new pastor is a native of Massachusetts and a graduate of Andover Newton Theological School. He was ordained at the Congregational Church at Harvard and has held pastorates in three New England Congregational Churches. Prior to accept-

SCHOOL BEGINS ONCE MORE

September brings a profound change in the lives of millions of Americans. These are the members of what might be termed "the younger set." For September is the month when school begins once more. For three long months the school doors have been closed. Now in September they open again, and it is back to the books and the blackboards.

Shakespeare, in his famous lines on the seven ages of man, gave a typical view: "...the whining school-boy, with his satchel and shining morning face, creeping like snail unwillingly to school." For the typical boy (and, no doubt, the typical girl) is supposed to hate school as the devil hates holy water.

This, of course, is a vast exaggeration. For modern education, whatever its faults may be, is enormously different than in Shakespeare's time. Incredible new worlds have been opened, or are being explored. The frontiers of knowledge are being advanced at an almost unbelievable speed. The youth of today is offered opportunities that would have been unimaginable even a few years ago. The opportunity is there—it is up to each individual whether it shall be used to the full or not.

SCHOOL'S OPEN: LIVES DEPEND ON WHETHER YOU DRIVE SAFELY

It isn't that children mean to be careless . . . it's just that in their zest and vitality they sometimes forget to stop, look and listen before crossing the street. It isn't that we mean to be careless either, yet the very car we drive may be considered a lethal weapon and the consequences of our negligence could be fatal. It is our moral obligation to be extra alert these days when school children crowd the cross-walks!

CHECK YOURSELF ON THESE SAFE DRIVING TIPS . . .

- BE ESPECIALLY CAREFUL NEAR SCHOOLS . . . THINK ONE STEP AHEAD OF EVERY PEDESTRIAN
- KNOW ALL TRAFFIC RULES . . . OBSERVE THEM AS LIFE OR DEATH REGULATIONS
- REGARD ALL TRAFFIC SIGNALS, SIGNS AND MARKERS AS LIFESAVERS . . . THEY ARE
- HAVE YOUR CAR SAFETY CHECKED OFTEN — FAULTY EQUIPMENT CAN COST LIVES

SPORTSMEN'S CORNER

By Bill Chiba

The 12th annual New England Field Archery Tournament was held this past Labor Day weekend at the Burlingame State Park, Rhode Island. 760 archers from the six New England states participated in the stiff competition.

Vin Karcerguis from Connecticut out shone the bevy of bowmen and posted a score of 918 which included a 456 Field score and 462 Animal score to take the top honors in the men. Betty Rondinone of Connecticut shot a 388 Field and a 392 Animal to wind up with a total score of 780 to take the women's division and reign beside her brother archer as the King and Queen of Field Archery of New England.

WESTERN MASS.

Western Mass. archers brought home their share of the awards that were handed out Sunday evening. Bill Condon, Ludlow Bowmen, topped the 325 men class with a total of 868 which is excellent shooting. Dick Leno, Agawam Bowmen, won the men's 250 class with a 737; Carol Pasiecznik, Green River Bowmen, came in first in the Women's 225 class with a score of 637; Sterline Eaton, Nonotuck Bowmen, lost first place in the women's 125 class to Helen Russell, Connecticut, by eight points. 424-416.

AGAWAM WINNERS

Kathleen Leno, daughter of Dick Leno, is the New England Intermediate Girl Champion. She shot a score of 430 almost 100 points over her closest rival; Arleen Sidello, Agawam Bowmen, is the Junior Girl Champion of New England with a score of 721; Jane Rudat, Agawam, came in third in the Cub Girl Division with score of 343; Paul Theroux wound up in second place in the Junior Boys Class, and his brother, Gene, came in third in the Cub Boys. In all, Agawam Bowmen had six winners with two of them being Champions.

Agawam Bowmen Sharpshooters

Shown in the picture above is a very proud father, Dick Leno, and his daughter, Kathy who proved their prowess with the bow and arrow Labor Day Weekend. Kathy is the Intermediate Girl Champion of New England, and her beaming father topped the men's 250 class to place first in the competition. Yes...they are Agawam Bowmen members.

502 men, 135 women and 123 children competed in the gala event. The tournament will be held in New Hampshire in 1964 at the Balknap ski area. In fact, it will be held there for the next five years. Every archer we talked to is looking forward to next year's shoot.

VFW Post 1632 Plan Family Picnic Sept. 15

A meeting was held recently to formulate plans for a family picnic for all VFW Post members. Robert Sullivan and Frank Gatti were appointed cochairmen. The picnic is scheduled for Sept. 15 on the grounds of the Post Home on South Street. Completion of the plans and committees will be made at the next meeting.

Russell Baker, chairman of the recent steak roast, sponsored by the post, extends his thanks to his committee, post members and families who helped make the roast such a wonderful success.

Gloria Swanson and Harold J. (Holyoke) Kennedy Co-Stars in "Just for Tonight"

Gloria Swanson will star in a new comedy, "Just for Tonight" at the Storrowton Music Fair for one week, beginning Monday, September 9. Written especially for her by former Holyoke, Harold J. Kennedy, (who will appear opposite Miss Swanson in the play) the production will be seen locally prior to the London, England production with the same stars.

Miss Swanson is a legend in her own time and has turned increasingly to the stage since her last motion picture, the unforgettable "Sunset Boulevard", which won her an Academy Award nomination.

Mr. Kennedy is a graduate of the Holyoke High School class of 1931. While at Dartmouth and Yale, he worked as a reporter and correspondent for local newspapers. His last appearance at the Storrowton Music Fair was in a featured role with Ginger Rogers in "Bell, Book and Candle", which he also directed.

Under an earlier title, Miss Swanson and Mr. Kennedy tried out the new play in Miami where it received glowing notices. The Miami Daily Sun raved, "Gloria Wows 'Em . . . commands your attention from the moment she hits the stage . . . emerged a smash hit!" The Miami News wrote, "Gloria Shines . . . you're bound to get your money's worth; 'Penned with wit and whimsy' was how the Miami News-Reporter described the new show; and the Miami Herald reported: 'We clocked thirty real whooper laughs in the first act alone plus about the same number of milder titters.'"

As usual, there will be a bargain matinee on Wednesday at 2 p.m., a family matinee on Saturday at 4:30 when a child under 12 will be admitted free with each adult ticket purchased and evening performances Monday thru Friday at 8:30 with the later Saturday night curtain at 9 p.m.
